FRIDAY FLYER 2

15th September 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have had a lovely time at school this week! Little Owls have had their first Forest schools session and their first music lesson, delivered by the West Sussex Music Service and funded by the RSFF! It was a great success and they can't wait for next week.

Kingfishers have had their first introduction to their new musical instrument, the viola. Their music lessons will start next week, also kindly funded by the RSFF. Red Kites have been learning about the circulatory system in science and the work of Roy Lichtenstein in art!

Finally we would all like to wish Ms O'Toole and Eliza all the best for their house move today!

I hope you all have a lovely weekend.

Kind regards,

Mrs Garwood

SORTING CEREMONY

We had great fun today sorting the children into their houses. Each house is represented by a Christian value and the children spent some time today thinking what these values mean, and have created a prayer and a motto for their house. There is a competition soon to design a shield to represent the four houses. Please keep an eye out in your child's book bag for details!
